Special Notice of One [1] Open Board Position

Spreckels Community Services District is seeking applications for one [1] position on the Board of Directors due to a board member resignation on October 30th. The Board of Directors meet the 3rd Wednesday of each month. The District consists of two primary service areas, Zone 1 "Old Town" and Zone 2 "New Town" [The 73 parcels that make up the Standard Pacific subdivision on the West side of Spreckels]. SCSD provides street lighting and storm water drainage for Zone 1, and street lighting, storm water drainage and landscaping services for the agricultural barrier and drainage trench for Zone 2.

For more information on the District, please visit our website listed above.

Oversight for the District is by an elected Board of Directors, of which there are five members. Applicants must live within District boundaries. [See map]

Interested parties should request an Application for Appointment to Fill Board Vacancy. The application includes a summary of how this district operates and what the expectations of the appointed board member would be. Applications can be requested by contacting Business Manager Paul J. Ingram. Contact information can be found above. Applications are also available by download from www.scsd.specialdistrict.org/notices. Mr. Ingram is available to answer any questions regarding the nature of this position and the District.
